From November 2009 until March 2010 the Sorell Hotel Rütli has undergone a complete renovation. With its 58 attractive acclimatised rooms it shines in its new image. Each room boasts new flat screen TV's that are much more user-friendly and interactive, not only can you watch TV – including both local and International channels - but also access the internet, watch movies, listen to the radio and much more. Also the newly designed lobby invites you to relax in front of the open fire place whilst refreshing drinks are served at our hotel bar. The breakfast room has been transformed to create an exceptional breakfast experience which can also be used as a meeting room available to our guests after 11am. The Sorell Hotel Rütli is at the beginning of the charming old town of Zürich. Various choices for shopping, many restaurant and bars, museums, cinemas and theatre as well as the Lake promenade and main station is in walking distance.
